Dear Parent/Carer

Well it is officially the early May Bank Holiday tomorrow. It has really got me thinking as it was supposed to be a day of celebration and commemoration of the end of WW2 in Europe – VE day. This is being marked by children in our childcare, and I hope you get some time to reflect at home. It definitely puts into perspective the troubles we face at the moment.

It's speculation time again about schools reopening. Just keep in mind that Wibsey Spring Bank holiday would not end until 8th June and that staff have not had a holiday yet. They are either working in childcare or have lots of work and training to do at home. I have been into school this week and any challenges will be considerable. Again – as soon as I know, you will know.

We have had a fantastic 2k YouTube views of the Wibsey staff video. If you haven't seen it, it is available on our website as well. Please leave us a comment on the page.

Below I have revealed the staff owners of the 4 pets from last week. Please App message in if you got any them right. I have added 4 more for you to discuss with your children. George and Mildred have messages for your children.

With respect to all the veterans who fought for freedom in WW" this week. Stay safe all – and see you soon.

Letter to children from George and Mildred

Hello children

We have been watching the Wibsey video over and over this week. We love seeing all the staff and we are looking forwards to sneaking into Wibsey Primary to meet them at some point.

Our dad (Mr Cooper) went into school this week to see how the staff and children who were in were doing. He said that some of you had said you like our letters and that we have taken over! We tried to sneak into the car to go with him – but he was too quick. Drat – we will get him next time.

Is everyone remembering to keep kind? It is now 7 weeks since you have all been at home and we know from having dad at home that sometimes we can get fed up. When we feel like that we go to our bedroom and read a book – yes dogs love books too – we like the quiet time it gives us and we can read our Harry Potter books over and over again.

We are still working on our plans to visit you all at Wibsey Primary School – and to take over so the pets will run the show!!

Woofing at you soon – go Team Wibsey

George and Mildred
