Task: I can write my poem.

Use your ideas from yesterday to write your very own magic box poem.

Here are some handy hints:

- Remember to write the title in the centre of your first line and underline it.
- Miss a line and start your first verse:

I will put in the box
.....
.....

Imitate Kit Wright and write the first four verses using this structure.

*My box is fashioned from and and with on the lid and in the corners.
It's hinges are*

I shall in my box
.....
.....

Experiment with ideas - word order and be creative. Try to include alliteration, onomatopoeia and personification. When you are happy with your ideas - write your poem using your best cursive handwriting or even publish it on purplemash - this is optional and has not been set as a 2do by your teacher. If you wish to publish your writing on purple mash go to:

- English
- 2publish
- Page border

Music

I can clap to the pulse of a song in 3 and 4 time

For today's Music lesson, you are going to be using The Oak National Academy. This is a brilliant online resource that uses activities as well as clips from real teachers to help you understand. Obviously, they're not as funny as your actual teachers but they will have to do for now!
