The week at Wibsey

It has been good to talk to many of you this week about how you or your children feel about the passing on Queen Elizabeth II.

There are as many views and opinions as there are families in a school this size. What I am proud of is the respectful way in which those different views have been expressed no one opinion is right or wrong, but I feel as a school we have marked this historic occasion in an appropriate way, and in a way that children will remember in years to come.

We have been granted the additional Bank Holiday on Monday for the former Queen's funeral and that will mark the end of the official period of national mourning.

School Photographs will be taken in school next Tuesday

All children should come in normal uniform EVEN IF they have PE on that day.

If children attend morning or after school sports clubs on the day then they need to have their kit with them to change in to or from .

I hope you saw the message about family photos. Thank you to the Office Staff for organising this.

Uniform Collection

As part of community responses to supporting families with the cost of living crisis, a free secondhand uniform shop is doing pop up sessions on Tong Street. The next one is Saturday the 22nd October.

As a school we are sending any donated, left over uniform so that the biggest selection possible will be available.

We will be collecting any good quality, washed uniform items you may have hanging around and wish to be put to use rather than landfill. This will then be sized and taken to the shop where any of our parents will be able to go along. I am organizing a minibus from Wibsey on the 22nd for anyone who needs transport. More details to follow.
