Strike News

You will have seen on the news that one of the teaching unions, NEU, has voted to take strike action on certain days—the first being the 1st of February.

I will be meeting with staff at the start of next week, talking to Governors and going through guidance and advice to make the speediest decisions I can. I do not want to jump the gun with only half the Information, but I am aiming to be able to tell you which classes or indeed if the whole school will be closed on the 1st February by this Wednesday coming.

As ever—the accurate info will come from me—and all schools will operate differently.

This term Year 3 are learning about Italy, its human and physical features of its geography, artist Giorgio Morandi and they will be cooking an Italian meal this half term. On Wednesday we are having an Italian themed lunch . Please see this week's menu.

Year Bolling Hall Fieldwork.

Please check all children's hair for any unwanted visitors. We rely on your vigilance in treating.

Y2 have had some great visits to Bolling Hall this week
