21st April 2023

Celebrations

Including our recent Easter, and into this week, we have had or have a number of celebrations both at home and some we mark at school.

Our wonderful mix of children, from many faiths or none, make us the fantastic, diverse, vibrant school that we are and I am always really happy to hear your children talk about their experiences.

This week we come to the end of Ramadan and so we wish all our families who are celebrating Eid an Eid Mubarak.

We also wish our Sikh families a happy Vaisakhi, celebrated this week. I loved seeing the processions on the news.

We also have St. George's day this coming weekend.

In school on Monday the 24th will be our St. George's Day lunch—a traditional roast dinner and on Tuesday the 25th we will be having our Eid celebration lunch.

Wibsey Spring Fair

Takes place this Saturday 22nd April. There will be a large variety of stalls and activities,

including performances
from our Wibsey
Primary School Samba Band at 1.30 and 2.30pm.

Possible Strike
Action Thursday
27th April

As previously, I will hopefully have early information from staff intending to strike so that I can send information to you by the end of the day on Tuesday. I can only do this due to the goodwill of the NEU staff.
