News and Views

We are facing several challenges as a school as we enter the winter period. With the seasonal rounds of common illnesses such as coughs and colds, and the apparent resurgence of Covid in the community we have days when absence is high and staffing is very stretched.

My main job at school is to ensure the safety of all staff and pupils to the best of my abilities. In doing this I consider staff-student ratios and other factors such as the trained support available for children with medical or other specific needs. The Governors and myself have put aside a pot of money to engage supply teachers—but again there is a great call on these staff across the district, and quite often they cannot be sourced at short notice.

In extreme circumstances it may be necessary to split classes across school, and as a very last resort to close some classes. I hope this isn't needed but feel it is important to give you a heads up on what we face.

School lunches

We have been informed by FM, the meals provider, that the price of a school lunch is rising from £2.10 per meal to £2.20 after the October Half term holiday. This is to reflect the actual costs of their staff wages and the rises in the price they pay for food. This is obviously unwelcome news but I think we can all agree that it is realistic in terms of the way we have seen the cost of living rise.

Harvest Collection

Paper copies of this news letter will be distributed today with a list of the goods we are collecting for the Foodbank over the Harvest period.
