Eid Mubarak

Following on from my message on Tuesday, Wibsey Primary would like to wish all our families and children who are, or have been celebrating, Eid Mubarak. We hope you have had a wonderful time.

We will be having a special Eid lunch (please see menu opposite) in school on Monday, alongside the regular jacket potatoes, paninis and sandwiches. I look forward to sampling the delights.

Consultation Evening takes place next Wednesday, 17th April. Please make sure you have booked your slot via the online invite you received.

Teachers will be calling where we don't see a booking as we need to meet you to hand out pupil reports.

Care Club review

We have not reviewed the prices for Breakfast and After School Clubs for some time. As these are not part of our general school provision we need to review our pricing to ensure that they cover costs.

We are significantly cheaper than many other schools and there are likely to be increases.

Wibsey Primary— The Community School

Welcome back to the Summer Term at Wibsey Primary. The year is flying by. It is a good time for a few reminders. We have the 2 week Spring bank holiday commencing Monday 24th May. We are closed until Monday 10th

June. This is the "extra week" holiday, made possible by us running teacher training days as after school sessions. It means that a weeks holiday can be considerably cheaper if you book Wednesday to Wednesday for example. Sadly I am unable to authorise any holidays during term time, and I know that fines are increasing, so this is a great opportunity to take advantage of this time.
