Bookings for the Easter HAF clubs will open in March.

Families with children who are eligible for a free place will then be able to log on to the booking system, check their child's eligibility on the system and book a place at a club of their choice.

Funded organisations this year in Royds are:

- Sandale Trust (probably operating from Woodside Sandale premises)
- Bradford Park Avenue

Details to be published on booking system but should include food, physical activity and trips

Just outside Royds ward, these organisations are also funded to provide HAF activities:

- Sedbergh Community Centre
- Bradford Bulls

Buttershaw area:

- Aim Higher at BBEC run by ex teacher Stuart Fisher, £40 week
- Buttershaw Baptist Church – has run a week long holiday club in summer holidays but person who did this is leaving, Helen may be involved in covering this ?
- Saifspace – no current provision but interested in working alongside Youth Service during summer holidays, should funding be found

Woodside area:

- Royds Community Association at Woodside Village Centre – Gavin is currently research provisions for Woodside families and is developing a survey along with arranging a community meeting to establish what families need.
The Village Centre will probably host two weeks free holiday club with a limited number of places, run by Junior Jam
There may also be a possible offer via One in a Million, who are starting to run daily children\young people's activities at Woodside Village Centre from March 17.
- Woodside Academy may have staff who could run holiday activities if funding was found
