Christmas Countdown

We come back on Monday to the 1st December and the Christmas season officially gets into the swing at Wibsey Primary.

You have all had Christmas diaries sent to you and will be receiving letters to apply for the ticketed events, starting with Year 1 on Tuesday 9th December.

Our first event is our annual Christmas Fair next Wednesday the 3rd of December. If you have any final donations please get these in.

The biggest help you can give us is to be on time to collect your children, promptly at 2.30pm so that staff can get to their stalls.

Entry will be via Y6 bottom doors, canteen doors (Top Hall) or for those with pushchairs/prams, the playground conservatory doors. Prams/pushchairs will have to be left in the conservatory as there isn't the room to have them in school unless exempt because of disability. This is an early warning—babies will need to be carried.

Continuing the Christmas theme, our School Choir will be performing at the Wibsey Christmas lights switch on in the village tomorrow. The children will join with St. Paul's for one song at about 3.15pm and then will be taking over and singing themselves until about 3.45pm, with the lights on at 4.00pm.

Our local Wibsey Events Group have worked extremely hard organising the day, with the market and much more, for the community to come together and enjoy. I hope you will join me in supporting the event. And sharing our many thanks to the organisers for the day.

handy tips on who to contact in school and how to find out and deal with many day to day situations.

It was gorgeous to see children come back to school for our Nursery class's bedtime stories yesterday. Pyjamas, hot chocolate and a good book were the order of the day—a perfect finish to Thursday.

Our new communication guide is out now. Lots of
