Eid Mubarak

On behalf of all at Wibsey Primary School
we wish our families
celebrating,
Eid Mubarak.

In line with the way we celebrate Christmas, I am looking forward to Monday, when we will be holding our Eid lunch and we will be having parties in the afternoon.

All children are encouraged to wear their party clothes on the day.

The kitchen have started preparations.

Well done.

UK Parliament Visit

Children from our School Parliament
travelled down to London yesterday to visit our national parliament, the Palace of Westminster. After an exciting train
journey, children and staff were taken on a tour of parliament.
They saw

a debate about the steel industry in the House of Commons,
and were even lucky enough to see what happens when a vote is called in the House of Lords.
As you would all
expect, pupil
behaviour

was impeccable
and the children
represented school wonderfully. I have been informed that members of the public commented on this. Well done
all, and thank you to the staff for the organising of this visit.
